If you are in need of emergency financial assistance to help with housing costs, please apply as early as possible.

Steps to apply for emergency financial assistance:

1. Call or visit the website of the Core Service Agency that serves your area

2. Complete the emergency financial assistance application and attach as many of the required documents as possible

3. When the Core Service Agency contacts you for additional information, respond as soon as possible to provide the information they have requested.
   - If you are having challenges obtaining any of the documents that they are requesting, contact the Core Service Agency.

4. Once a completed application and all required documents are submitted, the Core Service Agency will review the application and contact you to let you know if the application was approved or not.
   - The goal is to process applications within 2 weeks of when all documents are submitted, however the processing timeline may take longer.

Emergency financial assistance funds are limited, and applicants must meet the eligibility criteria and complete the application process to be considered.

If any questions, call the Core Service Agency that serves your area.

If you are seeking legal assistance or legal advice related to your housing, you may contact local legal services providers, such as the Legal Aid Society of San Mateo County (https://www.legalaidsmc.org/covid19 or 650-558-0915) or Community Legal Services in East Palo Alto at (650) 326-6440.
